

JOHN WARREN (1769 – 1830)

John Warren was appointed as the acting astronomer when Goldingham went to England on leave. He was the acting Director during the period (1805 – 1812). In addition to his work as an astronomer, he undertook the translation of a Hindu chronology which was published as ‘KalaSankalita’.