

In Commemoration.....

On the occasion of 90th birthday on 19 October 2000 of the late Prof. S.Chandrasekhar, his bust, sculpted in bronze by the well known sculptor Paul Granlund (Minneapolis, USA), was installed at the CREST, Hosakote.

The 2m-Himalayan Chandra Telescope, Indian Astronomical Observatory, Hanle.
Telescope Released for Science Observations Beginning 2003 May.

From IIA Archives

A glimpse of the photographs of Prof. S. Chandrasekhar on display at the Library, IIA, Bangalore during Chandra Centenary Conference 7-11 Dec 2010, IIA, Bangalore

S. Chandrasekhar, 5825 S. Dearborn Ave, Chicago 60637

Delighted to visit at the dawn of a new age

S. Chandrasekhar
Jan 11, 93

Library
Indian Institute of Astrophysics
Bangalore

Recapturing Chandra @ iia

Recapturing Chandra @ iia

down the memory lane.....

Prof.S.Chandrasekhar, Nobel laureate, visited the institute on a few occasions starting from the year 1961.

He and his wife Mrs.Lalitha Chandrasekhar visited Kodaikanal Observatory in the year 1961 on 28 Nov .

Subsequently, Prof. Chandrasekhar visited Indian Institute of Astrophysics, at Bangalore in the year 1981

Newton`s Principia .....

As CSIR Distinguished fellow, he again visited IIA in the year 1989 on Dec 12th and delivered the CSIR distinguished lecture on Newton`s Principia at the IIA auditorium.

a favourite moment.....

Prof. Chandrasekhar visited IIA again on Jan.11, 1993

He had informal meetings with the graduate students of IIA & other institutions

In conversation with IIA scientists.

with directors of IIA

a great honor indeed.....

IIA conferred its Honorary Fellowship on Prof.S.Chandrasekhar in the year 1993