In this connection attention is invited to the circular letter of the 16th April 1920 addressed to the members of the Society a copy of which is printed below and the undersigned hopes that the suggestions may be sent to him at an early date.

H. W. B. MORENO.
HONY LIBRARIAN.
Astronomical Society of India.

To All Members of the Society

Dear Sir
Madam,

I am directed to inform you that the Council of the Society have resolved to enlarge the Society's Library by the purchase of the latest and well recognised books on Astronomy and allied subjects and with this in view it has set aside a sum for the purchase of such books, I shall feel obliged if you will kindly send me a list of the books you recommend for the purpose and state wherefrom and at what cost they can be obtained readily. I may add that it is the intention of the Council to publish in the Monthly Notices of the Society, a list of all the latest numbers of magazines and books received so that the members may be informed of all the latest addition to the Society's Library. The Council hope that by doing this members will make better and more frequent use of the Society's Library.

I may add that the Society's Library is open to members and friends on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 5 p.m., to 7 p.m.

Yours faithfully,
